

Curriculum Vitae

born June 24, 1959

1979-1985 studies of mathematics, physics, catholic theology, history in Bonn, Trier, Würzburg, MA in theology 1985

1982-1983 member of the academic year of the Dormition Abbey at Mount Zion in Jerusalem (scholarship by the German Academic Exchange Service)

1985-1987 part time teacher at the Public School 'Adeliges Julianum' in Würzburg

1987-1988 visiting scholar at the 'Center for Process Studies' in Claremont, California (scholarship by the German Academic Exchange Service)

1990 PhD in Theology at the University of Würzburg (summa cum laude)

1990-2001 assistant professor and associate professor at the Institute for Systematic Theology at the University of Würzburg

1997 Habilitation at the University of Würzburg

1997-2002 Privatdozent at the University of Würzburg

1998-2002 various professorships at different universities (see below)

Since 2002 full professor for dogmatics at the University of Salzburg

2005-2006 head of section I for the Days of the German Catholics in 2006 'Righteousness before Him'

2006-2007 and for a second term 2011-2013 Dean of the Faculty of Theology at the University of Salzburg

Academic Career

MA-thesis in theology 1985: 'A supernatural existential. Karl Rahner's Theology as analytical enterprise of being here and now'

1982-1983 member of the academic year of the Dormition Abbey at Mount Zion in Jerusalem

1987-1988 visiting scholar at the 'Center for Process Studies' in Claremont, California

1990 PhD-thesis: 'Nature and Creation – Reality in Process. A.N. Whitehead's philosophy as a fundamental theology of an existence in creativity'

1997 habilitation thesis: 'Believing within discourses about the signs of the times. Peirce's semiotics and a pastoral topology of theology'

1997-2002 Privatdozent at the University of Würzburg

1998-2002 professorships in Eichstätt and Salzburg

2002 full professor for dogmatics at the University of Salzburg

Publications

6 monographs, 1 commentary, 3 edited books, 211 articles